

The 82 Churches of the Presbytery of East Iowa in Mission Together

Test Your Knowledge

How much do you know about the Commissioned Lay Pastor (CLP) program that is administered by the Presbytery of East Iowa? Try taking our CLP quiz. 1) How many elders have received or are currently receiving training in the CLP program? 2) How many churches are currently being served by CLPs in some pastoral capacity? 3) How many CLPs are serving as a chaplain? 4) How many CLPs are certified by the presbytery, on an "individually invited" basis by the Committee on Ministry, to serve the sacraments, moderate meetings and ordain/install church officers? (answers at the end). How important is the CLP program? From the CLP Dean, John Hougen, The Commissioned Lay Pastor program seeks to identify, train, and place qualified people as CLPs who will enhance the ministry and mission of PEIA and its churches. From Commissioned Lay Pastor, Karen Minnis, The CLP program has brought me opportunities to serve God's Kingdom through worship, fellowship, and education--greater peace and joy than I had ever imagined possible. The CLP program is just another way the presbytery uses your Unified Mission Giving dollars to give back to the 82 churches in the Presbytery of East Iowa. Answers to Quiz: 1) twenty-two, 2) seven, 3) three, 4) five.
